Selling the Go-N-Stow Trailer

Dealer Requirements

- NO dealer license is required, if sold as a kit (un-assembled) trailer.
- NO dealer license is required in the following states, if sold as an assembled trailer. All other states require a trailer dealer license to sell an assembled trailer.
AK, CT, IA, KY, MA, OK, RI, SC, TN, WI
- If interested in becoming a licensed trailer dealer – please have dealer contact their state's Department of Transportation

Shipping

- Trailers are sold in quantities of six per pallet. No single shipments direct from the factory.
- Pallets of six trailers can be drop shipped to the WD or Dealer direct from the factory.
- If drop shipped direct to dealer, dealer must have the ability to unload six trailers.
- Will call orders are available for pick up at factory in Missouri Valley, IA.

Freight

- Please contact TruXedo Customer Service at 877-878-9336 for specific freight quotes

Title and Registration

- Each transaction will require title document to be signed over from seller to purchaser. (WD to the dealer and dealer to the retail customer)
- If trailer is dropped shipped to the dealer from the factory, title will be assigned to that dealer.
- End consumer is required to register trailer according to their state's Department of Transportation requirements.
