ACCESSORIES

EDGE ACCESSORY SYSTEM (expandable)

The Edge accessory system (EAS) was created with future expandability in mind. The architecture of the EAS allows users to connect multiple accessories daisy-chain style to the Attitude CS or CTS. This means Edge can create optional accessories that can be added by the owner at any time. A second exhaust gas temperature (EGT) probe to the Juice with Attitude is one example of an optional accessory for the Dodge Cummins. Look for a variety of other optional accessories to become available in the near future.

BACK-UP CAMERA

The Attitude CTS has a built-in video port that allows users to connect the state-of-the-art Edge back-up camera to the CTS unit. This high-resolution, 4.3 inch color screen of the CTS will allow users to see what's going on behind them with the Edge camera connected. The camera mode on the Attitude CTS automatically engages when the vehicle goes into reverse. The Edge back-up camera comes with an anti-theft locking license plate mount, night vision capability so you can see in the dark and all cables and parts necessary to make a clean, easy installation with the Attitude CTS. The back-up camera option is a must have for towers and safety-conscious drivers. The Attitude CTS can also connect to any off-the-shelf back-up camera with an NTSC signal and standard RCA jack.
