Meyer Distributing Announces New DFW and Minneapolis Distribution Centers

Jasper, IN | August 21, 2014

Meyer Distributing, Inc., a leader in automotive specialty products marketing and distribution, announces the relocation of its 50,000 sq. ft. Grand Prairie, TX facility to its new, 17 acre, 325,000 sq. ft. distribution center in Arlington, TX. Meyer also added a new distribution facility in Eagan, MN recently.

“The Minneapolis distribution center will provide quicker access to product for many customers in the North Central U.S.,” says Matt Schaick, National Credit Manager for Meyer. “From Minneapolis to the Dakotas, customers will see improved delivery frequency and arrival times via Meyer Logistics.”

“The new Arlington distribution facility will greatly improve our operational efficiency,” states Jeff Braun, CFO of Meyer. “We look forward to rolling out our new warehouse management system to our TX operations in Arlington and Houston later this year. We expect improved fulfillment accuracy and a better customer experience in a short amount of time.”
